BESPOKE SHAKER PANELLED KITCHEN

This beautiful hand-painted in-frame kitchen was designed to create a unified look throughout multiple zones. The clients previously felt that the alcoves and multiple architectural doorways made the space feel disjointed, which they wanted to rectify with this renovation. We achieved a new unity throughout by matching the architectural doors to the kitchen and tailor-making shaker panelling and cornice to run around the room tying all zones together.

CONTEMPORARY OPEN-PLAN KITCHEN

High impact but with a universal appeal was the brief received for this development of ultra-high-end apartments. The space required was an open plan between the kitchen, dining and living spaces; as continues to be popular. It was therefore crucial that we design a space which allowed for distinct zones but with a cohesive aesthetic throughout. The L-shape design was conceived to balance large floor-to-ceiling windows and their stunning canopy views, as the building nestles into surrounding trees. The expanse of glass provided ample light allowing us to use these stunning textured graphite doors.

MODERN KITCHEN WITH WALK-IN PANTRY

As with many extensions, opening and unifying the space was key to our client in this multi-use layout which needed to encompass kitchen, dining, soft seating, utility and a pantry. Many older houses have nooks and crannies which can be converted for pantries, but here we needed to think more carefully to create the space. By moving a stud wall and adjusting the allocated area for the utility, we created a wall of tall cabinetry which wrapped around the corner and allowed for a large hidden shelving and prep area for all the family needs.

MODERN MATT BLACK KITCHEN

Our client decided to completely modernize their home with a full architectural renovation. As part of the project, we designed an open-plan, split-level kitchen-dining-living space perfect for their entertaining needs. The central island offers plenty of stool seating for guests and overlooks views of the stunning garden and countryside beyond. The room utilises dark concrete textures and matt black Dekton worktops for a modern feel, with accents of wood to soften the space. A Bora hob, Quooker tap, Neff ovens and Caple wine cooler complete the design for this family of five and their shared love of cooking.

CLASSIC IN-FRAME SHAKER KITCHEN

The flexibility of our bespoke cabinetry was employed to create unique storage around the client's large fridge and wine conditioning unit, which dovetailed perfectly around the room's architectural beams. Alongside these units sits the specialist oak dining table, Adjoining the island this distinctive piece of furniture is made from wide-stave solid oak; natural 'shakes' in the wood are filled with resin to create an eye catching focal point to the room, as it transitions from kitchen to living spaces.

COLOURFUL ISLAND KITCHEN

This local Sussex kitchen creates a contemporary twist on classic Shaker cabinetry. Textures and colours were important to these clients who wanted to balance industrial, rustic and clean modern design elements; creating a warm, inviting family space.

The island was colour matched to a bespoke vibrant plum colour, which was echoed in the client's artwork and complemented by other furniture in the room.

The kitchen includes Neff appliances, a black Elica extractor and a black sink & tap; a laminate worktop and lacquered.

INDUSTRIAL SLATE AND COPPER OAK KITCHEN

Mixing textures and finishes is crucial to the impact of this unique design. The cabinetry is a dramatic combination of Rempp's real stone veneered slate doors and copper oak doors with the book-matched grain running throughout. These units are topped with a Dekton Trilium worktop which evokes distressed metal and ties in beautifully with the striking smoked bronze Buster & Punch handles.

SLEEK MINIMALIST GREY & WHITE KITCHEN

Tall cabinets, wall units and the worktop frame the glass, and run seamlessly into the window giving a clean crisp finish. The cabinetry chosen is the matt Faro door by Rempp in the contrasting Diamond Graphite and Icy White colours, topped by a stunning Calacatta Gold quartz by Silestone. A rising Elica downdraft extractor, Siemens induction hob and ovens and a Quooker Fusion tap provide beautiful and practical solutions to finish this sleek family home.
